

The Book of Times of Celebration

"In the name of Hashem, the G-d of the world, I inherited Your testimonies forever, for they are the joy of my heart"; Tehilim 119:111

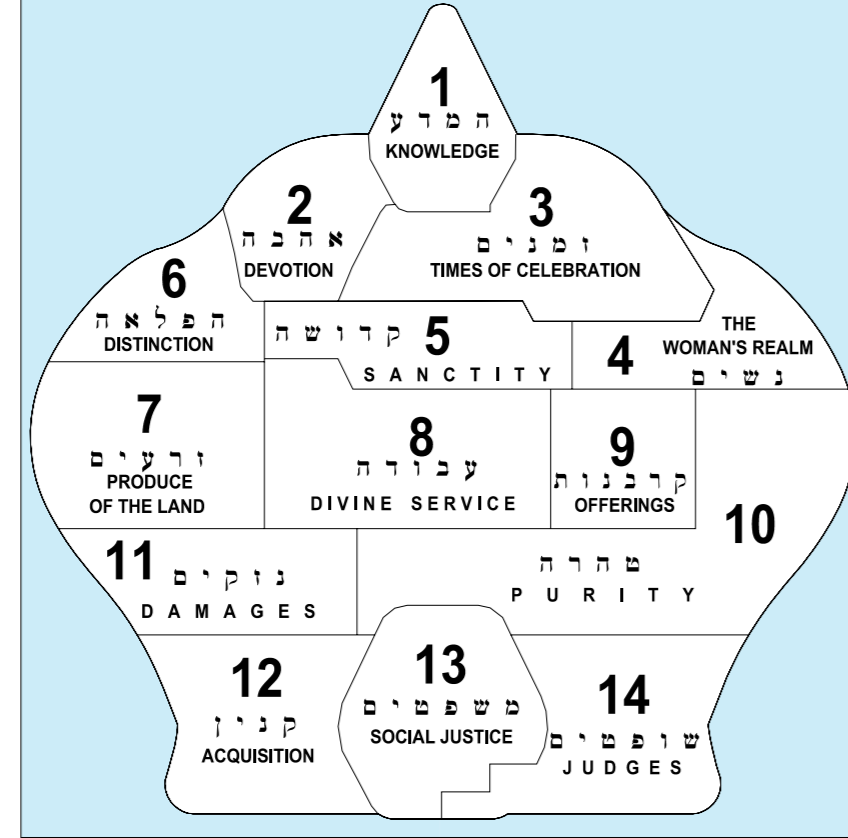

INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW

"Torah Map" is a visual subject guide to the Mishneh Torah of the Rambam. In his introduction to the Mishneh Torah, the Rambam presents his codification of the entire body of Torah Law, subject by subject, in a descending but expanding order of detail. This order comprises of fourteen Books; Eighty three Hilchot (Laws); One thousand Chapters and numerous Small Halachot (individual laws or rulings). "Torah Map" portrays the content and order of the Mishneh Torah in a spatial or "geographic" relationship.

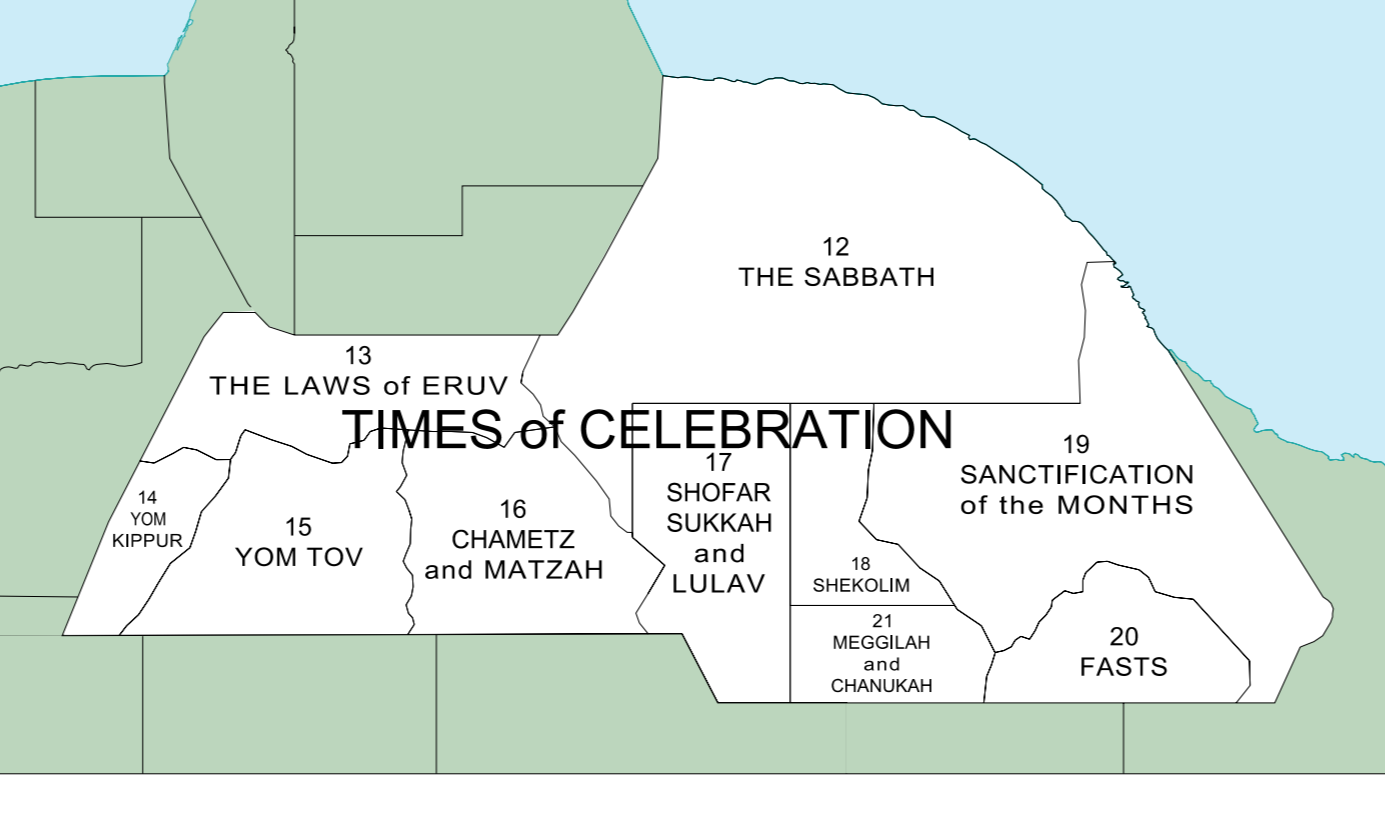

AREA, SHAPES AND SIZES

The shaped areas of the "Torah Map" depict the relative sizes of the books and the Hilchot of the Mishneh Torah according to the amount of chapters contained within the Hilchot. Hence the larger the area the more chapters are contained therein.

THE 14 BOOKS

HILCHOT within the Book of Times of Celebration

LOCATION

DIVISIONS

- The books of the Mishneh Torah
- The Hilchot of the Mishneh Torah
- The chapters of the Mishneh Torah

MITZVOT / COMMAND

- 207 Positive command.
- 301 Negative command

Rabbinical commandments are shown in italic text. The positive and negative commandment numbers are enumerated according to the tradition adopted by the Rambam.

CONTACT AND SALES

For further information, sales, customised and specialised wall maps contact:
Bcarto@hotmail.co.uk
<https://rambampress.com/torah-map/>

COPYRIGHT
ANY REPLICATION OF THE IDEA AND IOR FORMAT OF "TORAH MAP" OR THE USE OF THE NAME "TORAH MAP", EITHER IN PART OR IN ITS ENTIRETY BY ANY REPROGRAPHIC OR DIGITAL MEANS CONSTITUTES AN INFRINGEMENT OF BOTH TORAH AND CIVIL LAW

A visual subject guide to Rambam's Mishneh Torah